

Policy brief, dialogue and processes

Objective: Ensure knowledge from transdisciplinary synthesis of FACE-IT research informs local to international policies and actors* for adaptive co-management of future Arctic fjord systems

Julien Lebel and Victoria Slaymark

METHODS

RESULTS

Mapping relevant EU and international policy processes for management of future Arctic fjord systems

Identify opportunities for policy impact
Synthesised literature and policy document review
Interviews with key informants

Internal report
Scientific articles
(unpublished)

Policy Dialogue Meeting
in Brussels

Dialogue with relevant local, national, Indigenous, EU and international stakeholders on how local and national management is linked to EU and international policy processes

POLICY DIALOGUE REPORT
CLICK HERE

Policy Brief
“Arctic biodiversity, climate and food security”

Coordinated EU-funded projects addressing biodiversity in relation to Arctic cryosphere loss: ECOTIP and CHARTER
Synthesized policy-relevant results from all projects for:

- EU Arctic Policy and Green Deal
- IPCC, IPBES and EU missions

POLICY BRIEF BROCHURE
CLICK HERE