

“Cruise trouble”. How to sustainably develop Arctic cruise tourism?

Date & Time: Monday 6th November, 13.00-15.00

Location: Auditorium, Ilisimatusarfik

Details: The seminar is open for tourism operators and companies, policy makers, NGOs, students and members of the public. The event will be held in English. The event will be streamed online.

Programme: Join our seminar to learn about how different Arctic destinations cope with cruise tourism and how cruise tourism impacts communities and the environment. Share your views on whether or how to include more voices in the development of cruise tourism in Greenland.

Organizers: FACE-IT, Sustainable Arctic Cruise Communities, AAU Arctic and Visit Greenland

Contact and questions: Carina Ren, ren@ikl.aau.dk

Program

13.00-13.05: Welcome and program presentation, Carina Ren (AAU)

13.05-13.20: What is the situation and where are we going with cruise tourism in Greenland? (Helene Lyberth Steffensen, Visit Greenland)

13.20-13.40: Learning within and across Arctic cruise communities: Alta, Lofoten & Nuuk (Hin Heemstra & Julia Olsen, NORD University, Laura James, AAU)

13.40-13.50: Coping with cruise in Ilulissat during and after Covid-19 (Lill Rastad Bjørst, AAU)

13.50-14.00: Ecosystem Based Management of shipping in Greenland. (Karl Zinglersen, Greenland Institute of Natural Resources).

14.00-14.30: Panel debate – what needs to happen moving forward with cruise? Moderator Carina Ren (AAU)

14.20-14.55: Open floor discussion w/ coffee

14.55-15.00: Recap and goodbye